

Claims Academy

Bespoke training programmes for
Claims Professionals

What is it?

Elevate your team's capabilities with the Zing365 Claims Academy

The Zing365 Claims Academy offers a personalised training experience tailored specifically for insurance claims professionals. Our bespoke introduction and intermediate programmes are meticulously designed to equip learners with the essential experience, knowledge, and skills crucial for their professional development.

Embracing a flexible and dynamic approach, our Claims Academy aligns seamlessly with workplace demands, providing a blended learning experience integrating trainer-led sessions with cutting-edge e-learning modules. Crucially, it empowers learners to seamlessly apply their acquired learning directly into their daily roles, fostering the simultaneous development of technical expertise and professional skills.

Recognising the diverse needs within the insurance claims function, our academy offers two distinct levels of study. Whether you're a newcomer to the industry, seeking a transition into claims, or aiming to progress in your current role, our programmes are crafted to meet the unique needs of each individual. To further enhance accessibility and cater to business preferences, we offer a range of course durations.
